TOP 5 REASONS AGENTS POSTPONE JOINING CHARLES RUTENBERG REALTY:

Pending Deals: Good Real Estate Agents always have deals in the works. Nobody wants to switch Agencies right when they're in the middle of closing the deal. That's why we are now taking confidential reservations for Agents to join us when their sales are done. You can make the change without losing any of the sales you're currently working on. In fact, those deals will become the last sales on which you made less than 100% commission!

Listings: It can be daunting to switch Agencies when your Broker owns your listings. We never understood why, when you did all the work to get them, you can't take them with you. At Charles Rutenberg Realty, you can always take your listings with you. Talk to us; we can help.

Loyalty to Agency: We understand that you feel loyal to your current Agency. Maybe it is your first Agency, or maybe you've just been there for a long time. You've done a good job and your Agency should appreciate you for that. But, keep in mind, this is a business transaction. Is your loyalty worth 30%, 40% or even 50% of the commissions you've worked hard to earn?

Fear of Change: It's human nature to be nervous about any big change in your life. However, now it is even more important to have the resources and tools that come with being a Rutenberg Agent. You may be worried that there is a lot of paperwork, or a big investment of time and money involved with switching to Charles Rutenberg Realty. There is no need to worry! All it takes is one simple form and you, too, can be earning 100% commission on every sale!

Failure to Make an Appointment: I, Joseph Moshé, Broker/Owner of Charles Rutenberg Realty, have helped many Agents make the decision they've always wanted to make: to come to Charles Rutenberg Realty. Call for a private interview to discuss how we can help you make the change.
