

Steven P. Block

Partner
Futterman, Lanza & Block

An attorney and a certified public accountant, Block advises clients on all aspects of estate and elder law planning. In 2011, he merged his practice into Futterman & Lanza of Smithtown, which was rechristened to include his name. Block prepares wills and trusts, engages in tax and insurance planning, and provides counsel on probate matters, the administration and tax planning of estates and Surrogate's Court proceedings. He also has extensive experience in advising business clients on the organization, sale and liquidation of business entities.

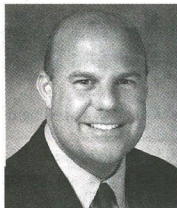

STEVEN P. BLOCK

Troy G. Rosasco

Senior Partner
Turley, Redmond, Rosasco & Rosasco

A senior partner in the 11-attorney firm with several Long Island offices, Rosasco focuses on disability law. Since 1990, he has represented more than 7,500 injured and disabled workers in workers' compensation, Social Security disability, Zadroga 9/11 Act victim compensation fund and other types of claims. A graduate of Cornell University's school of industrial and labor relations and St. John's University School of Law, Rosasco has authored more than 25 articles on workers compensation and disability law. He is an executive board member of the New York State Injured Workers' Bar Association and a board member of the National Organization of Social Security Claimants' Representatives.

TROY G. ROSASCO